

Safeguarding Record of Concern Form

This form is for anyone wishing to report abuse, misconduct, or raise any safeguarding concern about a child, young person or adult at risk in your Parish or church community. It may involve a suspected reportable crime or reportable allegation, or conviction relating to a child or adult (e.g., sexual abuse, sexual harassment, harmful sexual behaviour, grooming, physical, emotional, or spiritual abuse, exploitation, and neglect). All reports are taken seriously, treated confidentially, and handled in accordance with legal, ethical, and pastoral obligations. The Archdiocese also complies with State legislation by notifying the Department for Child Protection and other appropriate authorities of any relevant allegations or convictions, as necessary. If the safeguarding complaint involves a Reportable Crime, the Integrity and Safeguarding Department will assist in reporting it and will provide you with a copy of the report as evidence that you have fulfilled your personal obligation to report.
